

PRIVACY POLICY

We recognise that clients may be concerned about the information they provide to us and how we use that information.

Our Policy

We will not share your email address or other contact details with third parties.

When making bookings we require you to provide us with sufficient personal information so that we may process your request.

When the first aid qualification is due for renewal we will send you a reminder by email.

If you want to check the details we hold please contact: denise@fenlandfirstaid.co.uk
